WOMEN IN FINANCE

Join a network of dedicated female finance students just like you!

Our mission is to promote awareness and information for careers in finance industries such as investment banking, asset management, corporate finance, and many others.

By joining you have the opportunity to network with several successful women currently on these career paths through structured speaking events. In addition, regular meetings feature résumé tips and links to upcoming finance internships to help get your professional career jump-started. Be a part of a fun group of women that share the same interests as you!
